Re: Letter of Reference for Tara Nolan

To Whom It May Concern,

I am pleased to write a letter of reference for Tara Nolan.

Ms. Nolan was the key speaker at our 2010 YPO/WPO Forum Retreat that was focused on the topics of marriage, family, and communications. Over a two-day period, Tara used a combination of lecture and interactive exercises to educate and challenge our group. The material was well organized and presented in a professional manner.

Ms. Nolan related well to our group of "Type A" personalities and she did it with modesty and realism. Tara can provide valuable insight on marriage and family relationships to any organization or group that is looking to improve these areas of their lives.

Please give Tara Nolan your greatest consideration.

Sincerely,

Kevin Brennan
